Sheriff Sale Under Seal of Trust.

Whereas, Mary E. Emerson and T. J. Epperson, husband by the first marriage, died August 18th, 1892, and received in trust $7,000 of deeds of trust and mortgages for Washington County, Missouri, now to Annie D. Johnson, Esq., trustee, the following described real estate, lying, being and situate in Washington County, Missouri, to wit:

The west half of the southwest quarter of section five in township thirty-five (35), north of the base line and in range one (1) east of the fifth principal meridian, containing six acres, which said land was granted by the grantor of a quitclaim note in said deed of trust described, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and the interest thereon, and whereas the trustee named therein has refused to act, and whereas it is provided in said deed of trust that in the event of the refusal or inability of said trustee to act, that the then acting sheriff of Washington County, as the legal holder of said note, may be substituted.

Notwithstanding, in accordance with the provisions of said deed of trust as above set forth, and at the request of the legal holder of said note, the undersigned, sheriff of Washington County, Missouri, will proceed to sell the above described real estate at the front door of the court house in the town of Potosi, county and state aforesaid, at public sale for cash in hand, on between the hours of nine o'clock in forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, to satisfy said note together with the costs and expenses of executing of this trust.

HENRY L. SCOTT,
Sheriff of Washington County, Mo.

LOCAL NEWS.

Use Aromatic, the great health drink. Eggs are very large in Potosi now. Aromatic aids digestion and purifies the blood. Once tried, always used.

Local Personal.
Mr. F. A. Boe, a prominent citizen of Pleasant Hill, called on us yesterday.

Mr. James (Mandy) has been confined to his room for the past week, but is improving.

Bones.—To the wife of L. C. Ladd, of Pleasant Hill, on September 9th, a 18-pound boy.

A. F. Anderson, of Belgrade, will furnish better shoes and boots for less money than anyone else.

What has become of our equal Native? Nellie and Elmer. We hope to hear from all of them next week.

Rev. J. H. Johnson, formerly of Homestead, is moving to Potosi today, and will occupy Mr. John O. Long's house.

A lot or two of gravel is needed for the bridge over Dr. Bell's creek, which would be of great benefit to those who use that bridge.

Rev. Mr. Shute, of De Soto, is conducting a very successful protest meeting at Hopewell. Much interest is manifested, and there has been a number of conversions.

W. N. Woods, who has been suffering from inflammatory rheumatism for the past month, is slowly improving. Mr. Woods has had a bad stage of it, and we hope will soon be out again.

Hunter says there are more squirrels in the woods this season, than has been known for years. This squirrel is verified by me that the pines have been topped from you to avocados up there.

Thomas McAvoy, formerly of this place, but now of De Soto, Mo., and the unfortunate to be implicated in a road robbery, and was stoned to death.

We learn that he is getting along nicely at present.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church have had the interior of their parsonage handsomely painted and put in thorough repair, and Rev. Mr. Gauthier is having a good time.

After this week we will cut down the number of people we have been seeing out. Should you happen to receive the paper herewith send in your name, and we will be pleased to place it upon our regular subscription list.

Rev. Mr. Connelly, son of the late leading attorney, Dennis, during the past week.

Noah Richardson, of Jennings, St. Louis, Mo., to Annie D. Johnson, Esq., trustee, the following described real estate, lying, being and situate in Washington County, Missouri, to wit:

Marion F. Jarvis, to Louis E. Simon, both of Marion, townships.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Walker, Carrie and Fred Walker, and Mrs. Anna French, of St. Louis, Rev. J. Stephen of Farmington and Mrs. W. Ruth and Marvin Wilson, of Bonita, Texas, attended the funeral of Mr. Samuel Perry, in this place last Saturday.

Mr. J. B. Powers, Monday last sold his farm of 253 acres in Liberty Township, to George Biscoe, of Madison County, Illinois, the consideration being $1,000. Mr. Powers, we suppose, intends to become a citizen of Potosi, as the purchased a house and lot from W. S. Anthony.

Notwithstanding, in accordance with the provisions of said deed of trust as above set forth, and at the request of the legal holder of said note, the undersigned, sheriff of Washington County, Missouri, will proceed to sell the above described real estate at the front door of the court house in the town of Potosi, county and state aforesaid, at public sale for cash in hand, on
